League Average Weekly Best Ball Score

32.58

This is a new statistic I thought I would add to your reports.

Each week I review player handicaps using the 3 best scores of the rounds played so far. As we get more weeks of play we do see small changes in the handicaps of each player.

As you can see, the average difference in weekly Net BestBall scoring is just over 4 strokes from highest to lowest with the league average at 32.58 the highest and lowest averages are about +or- 2 strokes

I reviewed the lower averages and it is clear that these players do tend to have higher handicaps but they are also doing a great job of one player having a good hole when their partner has a bad hole thus giving the team a good best ball score.

REMINDER: Men's maximum handicap is 18 and ladies is 24. Regardless of handicap, no player receives 2 strokes on a par 3 hole.
